TORRINGTON PARENTS ARE AGAINST HIGH SCHOOL DANCE

The high school dance will not be revived in Torrington. Parents of the pupils have voted against a restoration of the dance, which was banned a year ago by the high school faculty, and Supt. L. D. Frazier has announced that no high school dances will be held, says the Scottsbluff News.

Incidentally, the superintendent comments upon a dance given some weeks ago as a "high school dance," declaring that it was not given by the school. At this dance, a "moonlight" waltz was a feature, the lights being turned out.

Ninety questionnaires were sent out to parents, asking them, "Do you approve of the adoption of the supervised high school dance in the Torrington high school?"

Fifty-eight questionnaires came back with forty signing the answer, "No." Fourteen voted "Yes." Some replies were ambiguous.

"We learn from those who attended a dance some weeks ago," says Supt. Frazier, "that certain music was rendered with nomenclature referring to moonlight; so the lights were turned out for a time in order to give the music its proper setting."

"This social function was called a high school dance; and some of the mothers permitted their daughters to attend, thinking it was a high school dance chaperoned by high school teachers. This was an error and we desire the community to know that there have been no high school dances. Any dance hereafter given and labelled 'high school dance' is not authorized by the parents, the school board nor the high school faculty."

Mr. Frazier asks the parents to cooperate with him in keeping the high school pupils at home school nights.

"The school board has requested the teachers not to attend places of amusement on these nights, in order that the pupils may have the benefit of their example for home study and the faculty of the school has made the same request of the pupils. In order to do their best work in school pupils must comply with the request."

HER FIVE YEARS OF TROUBLE END

Lincoln Woman Says She Can't Find Words To Express Her Gratitude For Tanlac

"Even before I had taken half a bottle of Tanlac I noticed a wonderful improvement in my condition," said Mrs. Elizabeth Finnell, 1641 N St., Lincoln, Neb.

"For five years everything I ate fermented and bloated and distressed me terribly. I had to be taking something constantly for constipation and at times my feet would swell until I could hardly stand. My nerves were shattered, I couldn't sleep and had awful headaches. I often got so dizzy I had to sit down and was so weak I could scarcely do any of my housework."

"Well, I read a lot about Tanlac and decided to try it. My appetite was never better and I don't think anyone has any better digestion than I have. The headaches, dizzy spells and weakness have left me and my nerves are calm and steady so that I sleep peacefully every night and get up feeling fine and my housework is not a bit of trouble."

Tanlac is sold in Alliance by F. E. Holsten; in Hemingford by the Hemingford Mercantile Co., and in Holland by the Mallery Grocery Co.
